

Home Study CE:

Diabetes Update

Assessment Questions

1. What is the most appropriate agent to prescribe MH at this time (assuming no contraindications)?
Complex glucose monitoring
  - A. Insulin glargine 10 units subcutaneously daily
  - B. Liraglutide 1.6 mg subcutaneously daily
  - C. Metformin 500 mg orally once daily
  - D. Sitagliptin 100 mg orally once daily

2. Which add on agent is most appropriate for MH at this time?
  - A. Dulaglutide 0.75 mg subcutaneously once weekly
  - B. Liraglutide 1.6 mg subcutaneously daily
  - C. Empagliflozin 10 mg orally once daily
  - D. Glipizide 5 mg orally twice daily before breakfast and dinner

3. Which statement mostly accurately describes revisions made to the 2020 ADA Standards of Care?
  - A. Metformin is no longer recommended as a first line agent for treatment of type II diabetes.
  - B. Use of intranasal and subcutaneous glucagon was added in the “hypoglycemia” discussion.
  - C. Screening for chronic kidney disease should be increased to 4 times a year
  - D. Body mass index calculation should be conducted at every patient encounter instead of annually